Pakistani Buy List: Bugs, Shockers

By Jack Anderson

The Pakistani government is shopping in the United States for torture devices for breaking down suspects and brainwashing prisoners.

The Pakistanis also would equipment" for bugging rooms, phone." tapping telephones; taking clandestine pictures and writing se- Spy Tools cret messages in invisible ink.

U.S. aid funds.

Col. Khan Aimed Shamshad, the Pakistani army at thenticity of the amazing procirculating a bizarre shopping Col. Khan for his comment. list of 17 items.

shock pulses equipment; time course, an internal thing. I can is, in my opinion, more appro-trict office in Brookings, S.D., one second to ten seconds, for only say this much: your read-priate to take these funds and that costs the taxpayers $200 a use in interrogation of sus- ing-I would agree with that feed little children in the month rent. Since Denholm

The Pakistanis are also seek- But he submitted the list to One of the nation's largest versation" and a small camera letter declaring: "We are in hitting up its executives for are wanted "to intercept un- fore placing a firm order as to level employees, bank Chairguarded conversations" plus the procurement of equiphidden infrared cameras "for ment, we would like to have unguarded photography" and the technical literature for the "Robert M. Pike Trustee an audio interceptor "to inter-study and evaluation." like to procure "technical cept conversations on tele-

For the use presumably of It is suspected—but can't be Pakistani spies, Col. Khan stated positively-that the would also like to buy an inmoney for the torture and tap- visible ink kit "for invisible he replied to Col. Khan, "I feel pointedly suggests that contriping devices will come out of writing and detecting invisible certain memories back when I butions should be "equal to writing."

High on the list is "electric he sputtered. "This is, of for this type of equipment, it South Dakota, operates a disgations powerful lights" and government" uses torture and later." "color changer on the lights" tapping equipment. His strange for "brainwashing of sus-shopping list, he added, "is just Slush Fund an inquiry."

ing tape recorders "for tape one arms dealer, Aviterra banks, the Crocker National recording of unguarded con- Corp. of Bethesda, Md., with a Bank of California, has been

"for unobtrusive photography." terested to procure the equip- campaign contributions. "Static intercepting devices" ment as per list attached. Be-

> Kleinsorg, happens to be a corporate secretary and is a German who had done busi-slush fund for the bank's favorness with the Pakistanis but ite political candidates. who has bitter memories of Adolf Hitler.

was a child in Germany and one-half of one per cent of We carefully verified the au-unfortunately was a witness your gross annual salary." when this material was at the tache in Washington, has been curement list. Then we called disposal of people like the Denholm's Office ones requesting it now...

pects to break them for inter-but it is not with an ulterior slums of Karachi and Lahore. and his wife now own the If you feed them now, you building, they are collecting Next on the list are "interro- He suggested that "every don't have to interrogate them most of the money.

In a stuffy letter to its highman Emmett Solomon urged them to make contributions to Fund." As it turns out the The firm's president, Horst fund is named for the bank's

"Contributions to the fund are entirely voluntary," says "Just by reading the list," Solomon's letter which then

"I don't know what to say," "Instead of spending money freshman Democrat from

What's more, the congressman has named an old friend, real estate man Arthur Anderson, as his $29,000-a-year administrative assistant.

@ 1972. United Feature Syndicate